

By the King.
A PROCLAMATION
FOR

Publishing the Peace between His Majesty and
The King of Denmark.

CHARLES R.

Whereas a Peace hath been Treated and Concluded at Breda, betwixt His Majesty and the King of Denmark, and the Ratifications thereof exchanged, and Publication thereof there made the Fourteenth day of this instant August; In conformity whereunto His Majesty hath thought fit hereby to Command that the same be Published throughout all His Majesties Dominions. And His Majesty doth declare, That all Ships or other Moveable Goods whatsoever, which shall appear to be taken from the Subjects of the said King of Denmark, after the Fourth day of September next, in the North Seas, as also in the Baltick and the Channel; After the Two and twentieth day of September next, from the mouth of the Channel to the Cape Saint Vincent; After the Three and twentieth day of October next ensuing, on the other side of the said Cape to the Equinoctial Line, as well in the Ocean and Mediterranean Sea, as elsewhere: And lastly, after the Fourteenth day of April, 1668. on the other side of the aforesaid Line throughout the whole World, without any exception or distinction of Time or Place, or without any Form of Process, shall immediately, and without Damage, be restored to the Owners, according to the said Treaty. And hereof His Majesty Willeth and Commandeth all His Subjects to take notice, and to conform themselves thereunto accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall, the Four and twentieth day of August, 1667. In the Nineteenth Year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.
